39

This system of musical notation covers measures 39 through 45. It features a grand staff with two treble clefs and one bass clef. The music is written in a key with one sharp (F#) and a 3/4 time signature. The notation includes various note values such as quarter, eighth, and sixteenth notes, as well as rests. The melody is primarily in the upper treble staves, while the bass staff provides a harmonic foundation with longer note values and some rests.

46

This system of musical notation covers measures 46 through 52. It continues the piece with the same grand staff and key signature. The musical texture becomes more active, with more frequent sixteenth and eighth notes in the treble staves. The bass staff continues to provide a steady harmonic accompaniment. The system concludes with a final measure in measure 52.

86

Musical score for measures 86-92. The score is written for a grand piano with four staves. The key signature has one flat (B-flat). The melody is in the right hand, and the bass line is in the left hand. The music features a mix of eighth and sixteenth notes, with some rests and accidentals.

93

100

Musical score for measures 100-106. The score is written for a grand piano with four staves. The top two staves are treble clef, and the bottom two are bass clef. The music features a complex melodic line in the right hand with many accidentals and a more rhythmic, chordal accompaniment in the left hand. Measure 100 starts with a treble clef and a key signature of one sharp (F#). The piece concludes with a double bar line and repeat dots at the end of measure 106.

107

Musical score for measures 107-113. The score continues from the previous system on four staves. The melodic line in the right hand continues with intricate patterns and accidentals. The left hand provides a steady accompaniment. Measure 107 begins with a treble clef and a key signature of one sharp (F#). The system ends with a double bar line and repeat dots at the end of measure 113.

114

Musical score for measures 114-117. The score is written for four staves: two grand staves (treble and bass clef) and two individual staves (treble and bass clef). The key signature has one sharp (F#). The music features a mix of eighth and sixteenth notes, with some measures containing rests. The first grand staff has a treble clef and a key signature of one sharp. The second grand staff has a bass clef and a key signature of one sharp. The third staff has a treble clef and a key signature of one sharp. The fourth staff has a bass clef and a key signature of one sharp.

122

Musical score for measures 122-125. The score is written for four staves: two grand staves (treble and bass clef) and two individual staves (treble and bass clef). Tho' sev'nty winters hoar my head my heart is still on fire;
by mossy fount and grot I rove
and gently murmur songs of love.

3. Oh, sweetest of thy lovely race,
Unveil thy matchless charms;
let me adore that angel's face,
and die within thy arms:
My ceaseless pangs thy bosom move
to grant the just returns of love.
